

Principal's News

Red Ribbon week is underway and the students are having some activities during lunch that are related to being drug free. Please take a few minutes to discuss this with your child/children, as I am sure they will like to share with you what they are doing at school.

We will be having a Halloween Parade on Friday, October 30, 2009. Please be advised that costumes are to be worn during the parade only, so please have your child/children bring a change of clothing for the remainder of the school day. Costumes must comply with our dress code. Spaghetti straps, bare midriffs, exposed underwear, and sandals are not allowed. Toy weapons and masks are prohibited, so do not send them even if they came with the costume. Thank you for complying with these rules, as we want all of our students to have a safe and fun Halloween Parade.

Elections are being held in our cafeteria on November 3, 2009, and we are in need of volunteers to direct voters to enter through the alley. Please look for the form on our website to volunteer for one hour between 8:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m. Thank you.

On November 6, 2009, Walteria will have its annual carnival from 5:30 to 9:00 p.m. This is an opportunity for families to come out and have fun. Please put this on your calendar, as this is a great event.
