

Principal's News

I hope you all had a wonderful and restful Thanksgiving. It's hard to believe, but we are in the last three weeks leading up to Winter Break. Please note that we will have regular school hours through December 11th for grades 1-5 (there is no change for Preppy or Kindergarten). However, the week of December 14-18, 2009, dismissal for grades 1-5 will be 2:12 p.m. Monday through Friday to accommodate parent/teacher conferences. Please mark this on your calendar, because we do not have supervision available to watch students who are not picked up .

I'd like to take this time to thank Ms. Maja Radmilovich for handling Reflections. This program provides students with an opportunity to express themselves through a variety of media to a specific topic. This year's topic was Beauty is ...

You will notice that there are flyers regarding our valet drop off and pick up procedures for you to review. It is imperative that these procedures be followed for the safety of your child(ren).

If you are in the front of campus after school talking with other adults, please make sure you supervise your child(ren). I have received complaints that the students are running and playing too roughly and this could result in someone getting hurt. They are entering the Kindergarten yard as well and are very noisy. If a teacher is working or having a conference, this is disruptive. Thank you for helping out with this issue.

There is a lot of important information being shared this week, so please take the time to review it all. We have included information about valet, GATE testing, Torrance Education Foundation, H1N1 flu shots ...
