Make-ups for school pictures are tomorrow, Thursday, November 5, 2009. If your child was absent on Picture Day, October 2, he/she can have a picture taken tomorrow. If your child had a picture taken on October 2 and you are not satisfied with it, he/she may take another one. However, your child will need to return the entire packet of the first picture taken and give it to the photographer before a new one can be done. If you like the original picture and wish to purchase more, refer to the information in your packet.

On November 6, 2009, Walteria will have its annual carnival from 5:30 to 9:00 p.m. If you are able to volunteer to help with the various booths or activities, please contact Tracey Lo Piccolo at 310-483-6585 or llippie1@gmail.com. This is an opportunity for families to come out and have fun. Please put this on your calendar, as this is a great event.

Wednesday, November 11, 2009, is Veterans Day, and school will not be in session.

Veterans Day is an American federal and state holiday in which we honor military personnel who have served our country. It was originally known as Armistice Day to honor veterans of World War I. World War I officially ended on June 28, 1919, when the Treaty of Versailles was signed, but fighting had ceased seven months earlier when an armistice went into effect at the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month. In 1938, Armistice Day became known as Veterans Day to honor military personnel who participated in all wars.
